

High Point Quilt Guild
Amendments to Bylaws

AMENDMENT ONE:

Amendment one alters the second vice-president's duties. The second vice president shall, as of June 14, 2012, no longer be responsible for hospitality duties as outlined in Article VII of the by-laws. Hospitality shall have its own chair and co-chair, relieving the second vice-president of these responsibilities.

AMENDMENT TWO:

Amendment two serves to clarify article number two of the High Point Quilt Guild's bylaws. Reimbursements for expenditures or compensations shall only be issued for items allocated by budget categories or to program chairs for their programs and for use of the greater populous of the Guild.

AMENDMENT THREE:

If the President cannot complete his or her term of office for any reason, the First Vice President will assume the President's role and responsibilities.

If the First Vice President cannot complete his or her term of office for any reason, the Executive Board will appoint an Interim First Vice President to assume the First Vice President's role and responsibilities until at which time the next duly held election takes place for the First Vice President's position. The current President and the newly elected First Vice President will decide between themselves what time period is needed for the current President to continue in that office to ensure a smooth transition of the President's role and responsibilities to the new First Vice President.

AMENDMENT FOUR:

Alters the second vice-president's duties as outlined in the bylaws. As of September 12, 2013, the second vice-president shall be responsible for sending get well and sympathy cards to members.

Amendment Five

The High Point Quilt Guild is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3), of the Internal Revenue Code.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) or (b) a corporation contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation its assets remaining after payment or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or religious purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government, or to a state or local government for public purpose. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed by the Court of Common Pleas of Guilford County, where the principal office of the corporation is located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Amendment Six

The High Point Quilt Guild is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future tax code. The High Point Quilt Guild will not engage the majority of its time and activities in anything that is not a furtherance of one or more of its exempt purposes. Any and all of the High Point Quilt Guild's assets are also dedicated solely to the exempt purposes stated in the Internal Revenue Code 501(c)(3).

Amendment Seven

Amendment seven alters the President's term length and First Vice President's term length and duties.

The President shall, as of June 15, 2017, serve a term of one year.

The First Vice President shall, as of June 15, 2017, serve a term of one year and then will move up to President. The First Vice President will assist the President and perform all duties of the President during his/her absence or disability. The First Vice President will be responsible for guild nominations and organizing a spring retreat.

Programs will have its own chair and co-chair, relieving the First Vice President of these responsibilities.

These changes will go into effect beginning January 1, 2018.

Amendment Eight

Amendment eight eliminates the term limits for the 2nd Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. Incumbent officers would still have to run for office every two years and win by majority vote.

These changes will go into effect beginning October 1, 2018.
