

High Point Quilt Guild Newsletter

February 2020

Volume 9, Issue 2

Please join us the second Thursday of every month at 6:30pm at Jamestown United Methodist Church Oakdale Campus Fellowship Hall (down the street from Full Moon Oyster Bar) at 536 Oakdale Road, Jamestown, NC 27282

From our President, Janet Wells:

Hello Dear Quilters,

I hope everyone is staying healthy and not affected by the various illnesses going around. Continue to use the disinfectant wipes on your shopping cart handles!

For the program for our February meeting, we will be conducting a guild survey. This will be done through discussions in a small group format. We want members to have a say in guild plans. We want your input.

We are in the planning stages for a one day Spring Retreat. We are hoping to schedule it late March or April to be held at our new home at Oakdale. More on this as we confirm a date.

Please join us on February 13 for our next meeting.

Happy thoughts,
Happy stitches,
Janet

Vice President, Wendy Clagg:

I have set the Spring retreat for March 21, 2020. At the new location - Jamestown United Methodist Church Oakdale Campus. There will be a registration form at the February meeting and there is a $5.00 registration fee. Addition information will be given out at the meeting.

Wendy

Officers, Chairs and Committee Reports:

Minutes

President Janet Wells called the meeting to order at 6:40 pm at our new location, Oakdale Methodist Church Fellowship Hall at 532 Oakdale Drive, Jamestown, NC.

President Wells welcomed everyone and one guest Joan Maucere. Birthday wishes were given to the January members. President Wells also reminded everyone Guild Dues for 2020 were due. ($30.00 yearly)

Sherri Fields presented the Treasurers Report. Beginning balance $16,760.93, monies received $301.00, expenditures $410.00, ending balance $16,651.93. President Wells ask if there was any additions or corrections to the Treasurer's Report. There were none. A motion was made and seconded to accept the report as submitted. Motion carried.

Due to a communication error, the minutes for the December 2019 meeting minutes were not included in the January Newsletter. They will be included in the February 2020 Newsletter.

President Wells announced that a Board of Directors meeting will be held Monday January 13, 2020 at Oakdale Methodist Church Fellowship Hall at 5:30. All members and Chairs are encouraged to attend. Please bring your own food and drink.

Raffle Quilt and Program Chair - Mary Beth Pazdernik announced fabrics have been purchased for the Raffle Quilt. The pattern is Log Cabin with an appliqué border. Fabrics are batiks. Pineapple Fabrics has donated precut flowers to use in the borders.

February's Program will be our HPQG survey. "It is very important that we hear from as many members as possible." This is how we let the BOD and Chairs know what you would like the Guild to be doing this coming year and in the future.

Charity Quilt Chair Angie Peele announced that 7 quilts were received this evening to be delivered to the Hayworth Cancer Center. There are quilt kits with pattern and coordinating fabric for your own favorite pattern available at each meeting. Please let Angie know if you take a kit. There are no charity sew days scheduled at this time.

Susan Pierce stated that she is working on 3 fundraisers for this year. Block of the Month has begun. Block 1 was given out at the January meeting. Complete and bring your block to the February meeting to receive your next block free. If not completed, you must pay $5.00 for your February block. Susan announced that any fabric leftover from the BOM will be available to members at $3.00 a yard.

Drop Everything & Just Quilt Retreat - Sherri Fields reminded everyone who has signed up to attend the retreat October 21 - November 1, 2020 that the first deposit is due now (January).

Several members shared their Show & Tell.

Please see the registration form at the end of the newsletter.

Education, Sherri Fields – No report.

Fund-raising, Susan Pierce – No report.

Charity Quilts, Angie Peele –

We delivered seven quilts to Hayworth Center. I appreciate all those who are sewing a quilting these quilts. A quilt given to a person going through a hard time lets them know that they aren't alone in fighting a hard battle. There are people who care and want to give them support.

As of right now, we are not doing Sew Days. We are going to try and have a sew day on a Saturday in March. Dates and times will be sent out.

I am cutting kits that include directions, all fabric for tops, binding, labels, and some backings. I will also try to have batting available. I am hoping this will get more quilts made for cancer patients and use the fabric stash we have.

Block of the Month – Susan Peirce

Bring your January block to the meeting to get credit. You will then be given your February block.

Additional Announcements –

The Palmetto Quilt Guild in Hilton Head, SC, is pleased to announce our bi-annual quilt festival to be held March 20-22, 2020 at the Hilton Head Beach and Tennis Resort.

I hope you plan to attend the show here on beautiful Hilton Head Island!

Thank you in advance.

Hello,

I am Gail Dula, and I never throw anything away unless there's no alternative. I have several pieces of fabric, mostly lightweight wool, that are from slacks that my husband had altered over the years. He kept them for a long time, and finally gave them up.

Each piece is 18" x 3"

If you can use them, I will get them to you. I can also bring scraps of fabric from my sewing years - I'd have to go through them to see what I have.
