

High Point Quilt Guild Newsletter

July 2022

Volume 10, Issue 7

Please join us the second Thursday of every month at 6:30pm at Northwood Community Center, 2409 Ambassador Ct, High Point, NC 27265. This site is on the corner of Eastchester and Ambassador, very near to the old Dragonfly Quilt Shop. Our meetings are virtual (online through an email invite) in November, January, February and March. They are in-person at the above address in April, May, June, July, August, September, October and December. To receive an invite to a virtual meeting, please call or email an officer in the guild before the next meeting.

From our President, Wendy Clagg:

I hope that at the August meeting we can discuss the charity programs that the guild will be involved in. I am trying to get more info and maybe a tour of the facilities at Northwood Community Center. I know and appreciated the need for the charity quilts donated to Haywood Center and everyone who has participated has done so with enthusiasm. The many thank you notes have attested to that.

Hope everyone enjoys the coming holiday and we will see you at the meeting.

Wendy

Vice President, Kelly Healy:

I had asked some months ago if anyone had a sewing machine they wanted to get rid of and would be willing to donate to refugees who are coming to this country hoping to make money for their families by sewing. I have found out today that the need is still there, in addition to a need for old ironing boards, working irons and laundry drying racks, as they do not have washers and dryers. If you have anything you would like to donate at any time, please call me at 336-777-1193.

Programs – Susan Peirce –

The Program for July is Color Theory by Charles Cameron. He is a modern quilter who uses bright colors and color placement to enhance more traditional quilt patterns and block designs. His quilts have been published and have appeared in major quilt shows. He has also written and published his own designs.

You don't want to miss this presentation!

Fall Retreat, Sherri Fields –

The balance is now due for the October retreat to Haw River State Park. Please bring your check to guild meeting or mail it to the Guild's address.

Ten quilts were delivered to Hayworth Cancer Center. Thank you to Joann Cloer and Lori Reiffer for helping deliver them. I will bring more fabric kits to July's guild meeting. Please consider making a quilt. The patterns I use are simple and easy to make and quilt. For those who took kits to make, I now have batting available so just let me know via email at mommapeele@aol.com and I will cut some for you and bring it to guild.
