June 2021

Volume 9, Issue 6

Please join us the second Thursday of every month at 6:30pm at Triad Church, 705 Sunshine Way, Greensboro, NC 27407

From our President, Janet Wells:

I hope everyone has had a safe, relaxing and enjoyable holiday weekend. I was able to keep my part of the cooking to a minimum! Yay me! It's not that I don't like to cook, but I had a table runner I wanted to work on for the next big holiday.....4th of July.

I have been to many Pineapple sales. I have witnessed van loads of people (women) unloading in the parking lot. I really hadn't thought much about where the shoppers were coming from. I met a woman from Arizona (she may have gotten the prize for coming the farthest). On Friday morning there were three women sitting on the steps when I arrived at 8:15 to set up the raffle quilt. One woman walked over and offered much appreciated help with the canopy. She and the other two were from West Virginia! They had driven down on Thursday! One family was from Tennessee and were in the area for a dog show. The mom insisted they come a day early so she could come to Pineapple. Dad and the daughter walked the dog along the woods while mom shopped. And walked the dog and walked the dog..... One group was on their way back from a week in Myrtle Beach and of course made a detour. They may have been from Ohio. Cindi Sullivan and I were grateful for the helpfulness of those on Friday, when the wind kept blowing the quilt stand over. We had a great response to the debut of the raffle quilt and everyone understood when we told buyers the drawing would be next year. Lots of tickets were sold and several were interested in the guild. Thank you to those who were available to help with ticket sales.

We have several more venues for raffle ticket sales. Please consider helping out with this task when the sign-up sheets are provided. Mary Beth will have information on this.

Be honest. Who guessed the lay out of the mystery quilt? If you hadn't been keeping up with the clues, no problem, the quilt police are not out on patrol. No fines for being behind or not doing it at all!

Our next meeting will be on June 10. Hope to see all of you there.

Happy thoughts,
Happy stitches,
Janet

Programs and Raffle Quilt, Mary Beth Pazdernik –

Programs: We will be playing a game or two at our next guild meeting.

Raffle Quilt: I will bring envelopes of raffle tickets for our members to pick up at the meeting. Ticket sales at the Pineapple Warehouse sale came to just over $425. There are a number of opportunities to sell tickets coming up: At the Mendenhall Plantation in Jamestown during a quilt show June 23, and during their Village Fair on Set 11; and Juddaca has arranged for us to sell tickets at an afternoon meeting of the Clemmons Quilt Guild.

Charity Quilts, Angie Peele –

I gave Hayworth Center four quilts in the month of May. So far I have two more to give them. Thanks Joann for your time and donated quilt.

On another note, Emily Jenkins has left Hayworth Center . She told me this was an opportunity she couldn't pass up. They are looking for her replacement but until then, she has left instructions of who to contact. She wanted everyone to know that she, the center and patients appreciated the quilts.

Attachments – None.
