June 2020

Volume 9, Issue 6

ALL OF OUR MEETINGS AND SEWING DAYS ARE CANCELLED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE BECAUSE OF COVID-19.

From our President, Janet Wells:

Hello all!

Thank you to everyone who shared last month what they have been doing while staying home.

I don't have a lot to report, but once again I have to announce that all activities for the JUMC facilities have been canceled through June 30. So, our plans are, if we can meet in July, we will have our carry-in dinner at that time! Basically, whenever we are able to meet, we will eat. I also expect to have a huge Show and Tell!

I don't know about you, but I've missed our meetings. We had some wonderful programs scheduled. Mary Beth has been working on rescheduling our program lineup.

Please share what has been keeping you busy the past few months.

Happy thoughts,
Happy stitches,
Janet

Officers, Chairs and Committee Reports:

Secretary and Historian, Diantha Dann –

No meeting due to COVID-19.

Treasurer, Sherri Fields – Treasurer's report sent separately.

Programs and Raffle Quilt, Mary Beth Pazdernik –

Programs: Ania Reich is now scheduled to present her program at our October meeting.

Raffle Quilt: All log cabin blocks have been constructed, with the help of Diantha Dann. Janet Wells is planning out the applique border. Once I did the math and purchased some insurance background yardage from Pineapple Fabrics (Dot came through for us yet again), Karen Tooley cut the strips for making the half square triangles using the Thangles paper piecing papers. We could use some help getting those stitched up. I am mailing some to Cindi Sullivan, as they are not very big, and I will be happy to mail some to others or deliver if you don't live far from Jamestown, or the neighborhoods off Johnson Street in High Point or would like to meet at the High Point Hobby Lobby. Please contact me, as our inability to have meetings has made it impossible to have a workshop at the church or to hand off kits at the meetings. My number is 336-823-7148.

Fall Retreat and Facebook, Sherri Fields –

As far as we know right now, the Fall "Drop Everything and Just Quilt!" retreat, October 29 - November is still on go. I spoke with Tammie Vass at Haw River State Park a few days ago, and so far, nothing has changed -- at least regarding us still being able to have the retreat. If anything changes, she said she would let us know as soon as possible. In turn, I'll keep everyone updated. October is still many months away, so...fingers crossed!

Charity Quilts, Angie Peele – No report.

Block of the Month, Susan Peirce –

BOM participants - we will pick up where we left off when we meet again.

Susan

COVID-19 Activities –

What are guild members doing during shelter-in-place?

Everyone - does anyone need elastic for masks for a charity (not for sale)? I have some extra 1/8 inch DRITZ Braided Elastic (4 yard pack) if someone needs it. Just e-mail separately at tkbyalicia@aol.com.

Here is what I have done while staying safe at home: Sewing for my grandkids, some garment sewing for myself, making masks for extended family and for Brenner's hospital through the Kisses for Kate Pediatric Cancer Charity, making some mock-ups of scrub caps for nurses on surgical floor of Brenner's, finishing ONE wallhanging and working on the Raffle Quilt.
